

1. Make sure you have installed all the toolboxes that is required to run the pre-installed MATLAB simulation model "autoblkEvStart".
2. Clone this project from Github in your PC with unique name of folder.
3. Open savedata.m file in the Matlab script editor.
4. Change file path according to your folder structure.
5. "Add to path" the main folder (that you pulled from Github) with folders and subfolders every time you open .m file.